The changes are in yellow...

18.1 The ImPRA will offer a second division known as Novice. The qualification for each division is determined by prior earnings during the previous two calendar years at all association rodeos (e.g., ImPRA, ICA, RMPRA, NRA, WRA, CPRA, etc....). The earnings limit shall be $1500 for all timed events, (tie-down, steer wrestling, breakaway, barrel racing.) with the exception of the #10 team roping as outlined in Rule 30.8. A contestant who has earned four times the two-year amount during their lifetime will also be ineligible.

20.7.1.3. Multiple monies earned for enter twice events will count towards the event title. This payoff will be used for the Open Barrel Racing

30.10 Women's Barrel Racing (WBR)(BA)-

30.10.21.4 Impra Prime rodeos the barrel racing will include an incentive in place of the Novice category. The entry fee money will be split 70% to the Open and 30% to the incentive. The added money will be for the Open unless specifically identified for the incentive purse. The fastest time will be the winner of the Open while the winner of the incentive will be .750 seconds slower than the fastest time.

5.9.1 Productions promoting one or more timed events maybe co-approved with the following conditions.

5.9.1.1 Must have a minimum of $250 added per event

5.9.1.2 Barrel racing money will only count if won in a high stakes race or won in the 1D.

5.9.1.3 Producer must submit payout percentages with the application.

5.9.1.4 Applications must be submitted no later than 7 business days prior to event.

5.9.1.5 Producer will pay a 1% co-sanction fee of the total purse (entry fee and added money) to the Impra within 7 business days.

5.9.1.6 Producer will need to submit judging guidelines with application. Example would be an electric eye in the cattle events or a closed gate in the barrel racing.

5.9.2 If in the event the producer does not follow the payout or pay the 1% co-sanction fee the money will not count towards IMPRA standing and the producer will not be approved for any other events.

21.1.1

Contestants qualifying for the finals rodeo must have entered at least 1 ImPRA prime rodeo for them to enter the finals. Contestants will only be allowed to count prize money at a maximum of 10 single events co-approvals.
